About the Event

USbased artist of Indian descent Uday K Dhar brings his first show to India As a gay artist who came out at a time when there were hardly any South Asian openly gay men in the US Uday K Dhar makes his multicultural upbringing in a BihariBengali family that took to Arya Samaji practices and a revolutionary social and political way of life the inspiration for his works He uses kitsch elements such as mobile downloads fashion advertisements newspaper articles and flashy web content to highlight the consumerism overdose that afflicts the entire world today Using portraits of Marilyn Monroe altered imagery of human profiles and much more he creates interesting collages of pop culture and global human decay
